MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Executive Director

SUBJECT: Goals for 1988

1. The papers you are getting from the Deputy Directors on this subject will likely emphasize goals consistent with their organizational responsibilities. I would like to focus on three issues affecting the performance of the entire Agency. While it is always useful to think about where we should be going, this is an unusually good time to consider the future... both because you have now had enough time to familiarize yourself with what we are doing, and
